Early Enrollee Season (2020-21)

- Named to 2021 Jordan Brand Classic
- First early enrollee ever at Notre Dame. Will keep freshman athletic eligibility for next season.
- After clearing covid protocols, Miles began practicing with the team on Jan. 26. Had just 3 practices under her belt before playing at Syracuse. Also had her 18th birthday on Jan. 29.
- Immediate Impact: Ended season with 5 straight games in double figures, totaling 52 points (10.4 ppg).
- Her 9.3 ppg ranked as the 4th highest on the team. Also averaged 3.5 apg, which would rank 1st.
- Methodical and efficient shooting approach — shot 24-of-47 (.511) from the field on the short season.
- After returning from team Covid pause aka last 4 games — Olivia boasted the 2nd highest scoring average with her 10.5 ppg. Also averaged an impressive 4.8 apg in that stretch.
- Into the Fire: 4 out of the 6 games she played were against top-5 seeds in the ACC tournament, including two against top-5 ranked Louisville.

- Ended the year with a near double-double against Clemson on March 4, securing 10 points and a career-best 8 assists.
- Back-to-back games of a season-high 11 points, last doing so against Louisville on Feb. 28.
- Season highs in points (11) and rebounds (8) against Florida State on Feb. 25
- In game No. 2, against the No. 1 team in the country, Miles scored 6 straight points in the 3rd quarter for the Irish before finishing with 10 points. She did it on efficient 5-of-8 shooting.

PREP

- Has enrolled early at Notre Dame and will be eligible to start practicing on Jan. 25, 2021.
- Miles and Sonia Citron made up Coach Ivey's first recruiting class, which ranked in the top-5 nationally
- Ranked No. 8 overall by espnW in Class of 2020 and the No. 2 point guard
- Attended Blair Academy.
- Was on the 2020 Naismith Midseason Watch List for high school girls basketball before making early-enrollment announcement — it recognizes the top-25 prep players.
- Earned First Team All-State all three years
- First Team All-MAPL all three years
- Maxpreps Third Team All-American junior year
- Averaged 13.6 points, 8.1 rebounds and 7.6 assists as a junior
- Guided Blair to a Prep A state championship in 2020, its first since 2017
- Three-time MAPL champion
- Two-time New Jersey State runner-up
- Combined win-loss record of 69-19
- Highlight of prep career was scoring her 1,000th career point
- Played AAU with the Philadelphia Belles with Citron
- Won the Nike Girls EYBL in Indianapolis in June of 2019 with the Belles. Played alongside current Irish freshman Alli Campbell
- In a January ESPN.com feature about Miles, author John Weinfuss described her as having "Sue Bird-like vision, Steve Nash-like smoothness and a Diana Taurasi-like ability to bully fellow guards with her size."
- Dan Olson — "Olivia is a poised playmaker with a potent scoring punch. She handles and distributes with flair, with precision in an up-tempo game. She's an elite floor general with international experience. She's battle tested, a true gamer. She oozes confidence and boasts superb court awareness and handles. She dictates tempo, reads the defense and breaks down the opponent. She possesses a three-point game range which is complemented by an elusive 1-on-1 game that dazzles the opposition. An absolute impact guard at the next level."
- Matt Ward of High Post Hoops — "Two words come to mind when thinking about her game: dynamic and electric. Miles can beat you in so many different ways. Her handle is second-to-none in this class, while her ability to convert at the rim, and consistently knock down both mid-range and 3-point shots truly separates her from others at her position. She is also a terrific passer and can be a lockdown defender as well. Miles is the type of player that can go out and score 30 points any given night, or she can score five and have just as big of an impact on the game with her ability to get others involved and make other players better."

KAREN & KEVIN KEYES FAMILY HEAD COACH

NIELE IVEY

2nd Season at Notre Dame
2nd Season Overall as Head Coach
Alma Mater: Notre Dame '00

About Ivey

One of the finest point guards ever to wear the Notre Dame uniform, Niele Ivey (first name pronounced knee-L) was announced as the fourth Karen & Kevin Keyes Family Head Women's Basketball Coach on April 22, 2020, just mere minutes after Muffet McGraw stepped down from her post after a Hall of Fame career.

Ivey was the common link to all nine of the program's Final Four appearances, two as a player and seven as an assistant coach, logging a combined 17 years on Notre Dame's campus. Ivey spent the 2019-20 season honing her craft as an assistant coach with the Memphis Grizzlies before returning home.

"I am so honored to be able to follow in the legacy that Coach McGraw built here at Notre Dame," Ivey stated. "My love and appreciation for Coach McGraw is beyond anything I can express. She's more than a mentor, more than a friend, she's one of the most influential people in my life. I am full of gratitude for Coach McGraw and what she has done for me. She was the first to give me an opportunity to play for Notre Dame and coach here as well. I will forever be grateful for her love and support. I would also like to thank Jack Swarbrick and Father Jenkins for having the faith to move this program forward with me. I can never thank you enough for this incredible opportunity."

In her first year at the helm, Ivey not only had to balance settling into her new role with a young roster but also navigate the waters of both a national pandemic and a country battling systemic racism. In a shortened season due to Covid-19, Ivey's squad went 10-10 (8-7) and used their platform to make their voices heard.

As an assistant, the Irish went 386-55 (.875) during Ivey's time patrolling the sidelines. Notre Dame's recent decade of dominance (2010-19) had Ivey's handprints all over it — no other program had produced more trips to the national title game (six), and the Irish posted the third-most wins in that span, as well (339).

That decade also consisted of 14 conference championships (eight regular-season plus six tournament titles split between the BIG EAST and ACC), seven Final Fours and a 2018 national championship.

"I am thrilled Niele will be the next leader of the Notre Dame basketball program," Muffet McGraw said. "She's one of the best young coaches in the game today and her success with the Grizzlies has helped make her even more prepared for her new role.

"What sets Niele apart is her ability to connect with all generations — alums, her current team and future student-athletes. She will be a fantastic role model and a leader in the women's empowerment movement, and she will represent Notre Dame in a way that will make our fans proud."

Ivey expanded her basketball prowess when she stepped away from Notre Dame to accept an assistant coaching position with the Memphis Grizzlies for the 2019-20 season. Ivey proved to be a true trailblazer, becoming the ninth active female coach in the NBA.

Over that year, Ivey helped develop a young team, with a new coaching staff, into a playoff contender. Ivey worked with several different position groups with the Grizzlies, but primarily with standout guards Jarien Jackson and Ja Morant, as the latter won 2020 NBA Rookie of the Year honors.

"Father Jenkins and I have every confidence that Niele Ivey is the perfect person to build upon the legacy established by Coach McGraw," Swarbrick stated. "As a player and as a coach, Niele helped Notre Dame women's basketball perform at a championship level. She understands Notre Dame and what it takes to help young women reach their potential here. We look forward to working closely with her in the years ahead."

Ivey originally joined the Fighting Irish women's basketball coaching staff in May 2007 (she added the title of recruiting coordinator in 2012 and was promoted to associate head coach in the summer of 2015). Ivey went on to spend 12 seasons under Coach McGraw before departing for the Memphis Grizzlies.

Over her last eight years in particular as an assistant, Notre Dame ranked in the top-12 in field goal percentage (led the country in 2013-14 season), scoring offense and assists. In fact, Notre Dame's offense over its back-to-back title game runs in 2018 and 2019 was one for the record books. The 2018 championship squad ranked in the top five in all the aforementioned categories. Meanwhile, the 2019 Irish took home the statistical championship for top-scoring offense in the country, averaging a program-record 88.6 points per game. In addition, they broke the program record for assists (804) while finishing second in shooting percentage (50.8 percent). The stat that is the icing on the cake to all of this — the 2019 starting five of Ogunbowale, Mabrey, Shepard, Turner and Young went down as the most prolific scoring fivesome in the history of NCAA Division I basketball (men's or women's), amassing an astonishing 10,230 combined career points.

In addition to her achievements in player development with such proteges as All-Americans Skylar Diggins, Jewell Loyd, Lindsay Allen and Arike Ogunbowale, Ivey emerged as a rising star on the recruiting trail, with a sharp eye for young up-and-coming talent. In fact, she helped Notre Dame attract top-12 incoming classes in nine of her last 10 years. In her last class, Coach Ivey nabbed No. 6 Samantha Brunelle and No. 18 Anaya Peoples.

What's more, Ivey displayed brilliant prowess when it came to scouting and in-game strategy. In her last six years alone, she was directly responsible for creating the game plans that led to victories over Duke (12 times), Tennessee (8 times), Florida State (7 times), Connecticut (5 times), Maryland (three times), Louisville (8 times), Syracuse (7 times), UCLA (three times), Baylor (twice), Texas A&M (3 times) and South Carolina, among many others.

In fact, Notre Dame is 5-3 all-time against UConn in the NCAA Tournament, which more than doubles the next best team's win total. Overall, over her last 11 years, the Irish have knocked off the Huskies nine times, while all other Division I teams combined for eight wins.

All things considered, it was no surprise when Ivey was chosen as the inaugural recipient of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Division I National Assistant Coach of the Year award in 2016.

A former All-America point guard at Notre Dame and a five-year WNBA veteran, Ivey brought her considerable experience to bear on the Fighting Irish floor generals, most recently on display with two-time All-American, two-time Ann Meyers Drysdale Award finalist and 2018 Final Four MVP Arike Ogunbowale. The 2019 graduate will forever be known for her "Ice Twice" shots, knocking down back-to-back buzzer beaters over UConn and Mississippi State to lift the Irish to the 2018 national title. Ogunbowale also just happened to reel in a runner-up finish to the 2018 AP Female Athlete of the Year Award behind the legendary Serena Williams. Upon graduation, Ogunbowale left as the program's all-time leading scorer, accumulating 2,626 career points, along with the program's top marks in double-figure scoring games, 20-point games, and 30-point games, plus top season marks in scoring average and points. Ogunbowale was selected fifth overall in the 2019 WNBA Draft by the Dallas Wings. Ogunbowale continues to thrive, winning the WNBA scoring title in 2020.

Before Ogunbowale, came Lindsay Allen, who was a three-time All-American and three-time Nancy Lieberman Award finalist, as the latter was an accolade Ivey herself received during her senior season at Notre Dame in 2000-01. Allen set both the school and ACC records for both single-season (282 in 2016-17) and career assists (841), and ranked 22nd in NCAA history in career assists. Allen was also one of just two Notre Dame players with three 200-assist seasons and led the ACC in both assists and assist-to-turnover ratio from 2015-17. Allen was named MVP of the 2017 ACC Tournament, setting a tournament record with 33 assists, all while leading Notre Dame to its fourth straight title. All-in-all, Allen's superb Irish career led her to be drafted 14th overall by the New York Liberty in the 2017 WNBA Draft.

Along with working with Allen, Ivey helped mold Loyd into one of the country's top players from 2012-15. In that three-year period, Loyd developed an offensive package unlike any seen in Notre Dame history, capped in 2014-15 by her 772 points and 19.8 points-per-game scoring average. Loyd's best performances came against Top 25 teams, in which she averaged 22.8 points, 6.5 rebounds and 3.2 assists per game, including a school record-tying 41 at DePaul, 34 against Tennessee and 31 against Connecticut. Loyd ultimately finished with 1,909 points and a 17.0 career points-per-game average. Loyd was chosen as the 2015 espnW National Player of the Year, while also ending as the runner-up for the AP National Player of the Year honor and the John R. Wooden Award. As a direct result, Loyd elected to forego her senior season to enter the 2015 WNBA Draft and wound up being the first Fighting Irish player chosen No. 1 in the league's annual college draft and then later selected as the WNBA Rookie of the Year. Furthermore, Loyd was a 2018 WNBA All-Star before claiming the 2018 WNBA title with the Seattle Storm. Then she won the title again with the Storm in 2020.

Most notably in Ivey's tutelage career was Skylar Diggins. Ivey was primarily responsible for supervising the growth of popular South Bend native, who blossomed into one of Notre Dame's legends in any sport.

Under Ivey's guidance, Diggins made a seamless transition from shooting guard to point guard during her final three seasons, emerging as one of the nation's elite players to become one of just three two-time recipients of the Lieberman Award and a two-time consensus first-team All-America and BIG EAST Player of the Year selection, all before being chosen third overall in the first round of the 2013 WNBA Draft by the Tulsa Shock (now known as the Dallas Wings). She went on to be a Four-time All-WNBA honoree after earning WNBA All-Rookie Team honors in 2013, in addition to being a four-time WNBA All-Star selection.

Thanks to Ivey's mentorship, Diggins became the first Fighting Irish player and one of only four NCAA Division I players during the 10-season period from 2001-02 to 2012-13 to register 600 points, 200 assists and 100 steals in a single campaign, pulling off that feat in each of her final two seasons (2011-12 and 2012-13). She also owns the top two single-season steals totals in school history (114 in 2012-13, 102 in 2011-12), as well as the fourth and fifth best single-season assist marks in the Notre Dame record books (225 in 2012-13, 222 in 2011-12). What's more, her 657 points in 2011-12 ranks eighth on the school's single-season chart, one spot higher than her 631 points as a senior in 2012-13. In addition, she posted the fourth-best assist-turnover ratio (2.16 in 2011-12) by a Fighting Irish player in one season.

Besides her seasonal awards, Diggins was a three-time NCAA Regional Most Outstanding Player (2010-Dayton; 2011-Raleigh; 2012-Norfolk) and was a member of the 2011 and 2012 NCAA Women's Final Four All-Tournament Teams, becoming the first Notre Dame player to be selected for either honor twice in her career. Diggins graduated in 2013 as the holder (or co-holder) of no fewer than 32 game, season or career records at Notre Dame, and ranks among the top five on an astounding 105 of the program's game, season or career charts.

Ivey came back to Notre Dame following two seasons (2005-07) as an administrative assistant on the women's basketball staff at Xavier University, where she served under former Notre Dame assistant coach Kevin McGuff (now the head coach at Ohio State). During Ivey's two seasons at Xavier, she coordinated film exchange and assisted in many of the daily operations of the Musketeers' program, including travel, academics and community outreach.

Ivey sat out most of her freshman season at Notre Dame (1996-97 Final Four campaign) after suffering a season-ending knee injury five games in. However, she was awarded a fifth year of eligibility in 2000-01 and made the most of it, earning third-team AP All-America honors, the first Fighting Irish point guard to be so recognized. She also was the recipient of the 2001 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award (nation's top senior player standing 5-foot-8 or under) and was a finalist for the 2001 Lieberman Award. In addition, Ivey made the 2001 NCAA Women's Final Four All-Tournament Team after averaging 16.5 points and 5.5 steals per game as the Fighting Irish defeated Connecticut and Purdue to win their first national title.

All told, Notre Dame went 109-22 (.832) during Ivey's last four seasons, reaching the NCAA Sweet 16 three times (1998, 2000, 2001) and rolling up a (then) school-record 34 wins in 2000-01. The Fighting Irish also won a share of their first BIG EAST regular-season championship in 2000-01 and were ranked in the top 10 of either or both the Associated Press and WBCA/USA Today polls for all but two weeks during her final three campaigns. While at Notre Dame, Ivey was a three-time all-BIG EAST selection (1999-2001), collecting first-team honors in 2001, and was tapped as the BIG EAST Player of the Week five times. She also led the Fighting Irish in steals in each of her final four seasons (1997-98 to 2000-01) and was the team's assist leader in her last three years, setting school records with 95 steals in 1999-2000 (since topped by Diggins) and 247 assists in 2000-01, along with a school-standard 2.67 assist/turnover ratio the latter season.

Ivey went on to play five seasons in the WNBA, beginning with her selection by the Indiana Fever in the second round (17th overall pick) of the 2001 WNBA Draft. She spent four seasons with the Fever, helping them to the first playoff berth in franchise history in 2002. Ivey signed with the Detroit Shock as a restricted free agent in 2005, and subsequently was acquired by the Phoenix Mercury later that season.

A native of St. Louis, Ivey graduated from Notre Dame's College of Arts and Letters in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in history.

In Their Words...

MUFFET MCGRAW

Former Karen & Kevin Keyes Family Head Women's Basketball Coach

"I am thrilled Niele will be the next leader of the Notre Dame basketball program. There is no doubt in my mind that she's one of the best young coaches today at the collegiate or professional level. What sets Niele apart is her ability to connect with all generations - alums, her current team and future student-athletes. She will be a fantastic role model and a leader in the women's empowerment movement, and she will represent Notre Dame in a way that will make our fans proud."

JACK SWARBRICK

University Vice President & James E. Rohr Director of Athletics

"Father Jenkins and I have every confidence that Niele Ivey is the perfect person to build upon the legacy established by Coach McGraw. As a player and as a coach Niele helped Notre Dame women's basketball perform at a championship level. She understands Notre Dame and what it takes to help young women reach their potential here. We look forward to working closely with her in the years ahead."

JAREN JACKSON

Power Forward - Memphis Grizzlies

"She is about to go crazy at Notre Dame. I can tell this is something that really is a good fit for her. It lines up and it looks great. Everything she has done this season to help us prepare for games and on our games. She is the realest, honestly. She was always getting wins when it was her scout. She probably had the most wins in her scout. She is unreal. So I am just happy for her. I bet she doesn't even know what to do with herself right now. Go Irish. That is probably the only time I will say that."

TAYLOR JENKINS

Head Coach - Memphis Grizzlies

"I'm so excited for Niele and this wonderful opportunity to return to her alma mater, where she spent so many years as a player and as a coach. In her first year with the Memphis Grizzlies, Niele made a lasting impact on the floor, but even more so off the floor through her relationships with the players, fellow coaches and staff, including the relationship we built coach-to-coach. Niele is going to make a huge impact in the lives of the women who come through the Notre Dame program, both as players and people, because that's who she is - a difference maker in so many respects."

ABOUT OWENS

One of the nation's premier coaches, Carol Owens enters her 22nd year on the Notre Dame women's basketball coaching staff for the 2021-22 season, and her 13th as associate head coach for the Fighting Irish, having originally been elevated to that position by head coach Muffet McGraw prior to the 2002-03 season (holding that role through the 2004-05 campaign), and then again in the summer of 2012.

Throughout her tenure at Notre Dame, Owens has focused on working with the Fighting Irish post players, while also assisting with the program's nationally-ranked recruiting efforts (Notre Dame has attracted 25 consecutive top-20 recruiting classes from 1997-2021 something only two other schools achieved).

With over two decades at Notre Dame (first from 1995-2005, then again since 2010-11), Owens has played an important role in the Fighting Irish's rise to national prominence. As the senior member of the program's assistant coaching staff, Notre Dame has posted a 585-134 (.814), averaging over 27 victories per season in her tenure.

More notably, the Fighting Irish have won two national titles, with the first coming in 2001, followed by the second in 2018. In addition, Notre Dame has appeared in seven NCAA title games and have reached the Final Four nine times (1997, 2001, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2018, 2019) — which ranks as the fifth most of any school.

Owens was named the 2019 WBCA Division I Assistant Coach of the Year along with being inducted into the inaugural STEP UP Assistant Coach Hall of Fame. In 2014, she was chosen as the inaugural recipient of the A Step Up Assistant Coach of the Year Award, presented by Felicia Hall Allen & Associates. In 2001, she was named one of the top five assistant coaches in the country by Women's Basketball Journal, and in 2011, Colleg Insider.com named her as one of the top 15 active assistants in the nation.

Owens has had the magic touch when it comes to developing elite post players over the years, with no fewer than seven of her pupils (Natalie Achonwa, Jacqueline Batteast, Katryna Gaither, Ruth Riley, Devereaux Peters, Jessica Shepard and Brianna Turner) earning a combined 34 All-America honors during their college careers. Six of her post proteges went on to be drafted into the WNBA — as Riley, Peters and Batteast all went on to claim WNBA titles.

In 2021, Owens took freshman standout Maddy Westbeld under her wings and by the end of the season, the Ohio native was the ACC Rookie of the Year. Westbeld was also a WBCA All-America Regional finalist and First-Team All-ACC selection. Maddy was the only freshman in the country who averaged at least 15 points, 7.5 rebounds, 2.5 assists & 1.4 steals. Lastly, her 15.2 ppg ranked third for a freshman all-time at ND.

2019 marked a special year for Owens with two of her post proteges from the back-to-back NCAA Title game runs in Shepard and Turner both being selected in the WNBA Draft. Turner went 12th overall to the Atlanta Dream (traded to Phoenix Mercury), while Shepard went 16th overall to the Minnesota Lynx. While Shepard's first year ended early due to injury, Turner went on to being named to the WNBA All-Rookie Team.

At Notre Dame, Turner wasted little time in emerging as one of the nation's top posts. In the 2014-15 season, the ACC Freshman of the Year led the nation with a .652 field-goal percentage (second-best in school history), becoming the first Division I freshman since 1996-97, and third rookie all-time to lead the country in that category. In addition, Turner became the first Notre Dame player to win an NCAA statistical national championship since 2000-01.

Turner went on to have a record-breaking career at Notre Dame, becoming the program's all-time leader in rebounds (1,048) and blocks (372). A three-time All-American and three-time ACC Defensive Player of the Year, Turner also finished with the second-best shooting percentage (.624). Turner and Riley are now the only two players in program history to reach 2,000 points, 1,000 rebounds (all while in an Irish uniform).

Shepard emerged onto the scene for the 2017-18 season (after being cleared to play immediately after transfer from Nebraska) and helped guide the Irish to their second national title. Shepard was named to the All-Final Four Team after averaging 17.0 ppg in Columbus on 62.5 percent shooting. A 2019 AP All-American and Wooden Award National Ballot honoree, Shepard transformed into an even bigger star in her senior year, tallying 19 double-doubles which tied Achonwa for most in a single season. A two-time First-Team All-ACC selection, Shepard produced 34 double-doubles at Notre Dame in just two seasons, which tied for fourth all-time. Shepard also broke the single-season rebounding mark in both total (390) and average (10.3). Like Turner, Shepard was highly efficient from the field, knocking down 58.0 percent of her shots at Notre Dame, which ranked sixth all-time. All-in-all, Shepard collected 2,340 points and 1,248 rebounds over her collegiate career.

Prior to her 2019 graduates, Owens worked closely with Natalie Achonwa, a two-time All-American and all-conference selection at Notre Dame from 2010-14, ranking among the top 10 in program history for career rebounds (970), double-doubles (28) and field-goal percentage (.562), while also earning 1,546 career points. What's more, she had a school-record 19 double-doubles as a junior in 2012-13 and ranked third in the nation with a .611 field-goal percentage as a senior in 2013-14.

Achonwa went on to be selected in the first round (No. 9 overall) of the 2014 WNBA Draft by the Indiana Fever, for whom she made her professional debut a year later (delayed by her recovery from knee surgery). In addition, Owens helped Achonwa take her talents to the international stage and become a two-time Olympian with Canada. Achonwa was selected to the 2012 Olympic Team, becoming the second-youngest player to compete at the London Games. Achonwa later returned with Team Canada in Rio in 2016, guiding the squad to the quarterfinal round. Previously, Achonwa has collected a gold medal with Canada at the 2015 Pan Am Games and a silver medal at the 2013 FIBA Americas Championship.

Speaking of Achonwa, she was the 2019 inductee into Notre Dame's prestigious Ring of Honor, joining Riley.

Another of Owens' success stories was two-time WBCA Coaches' honorable mention All-American and BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year (as well as first-team all-BIG EAST selection) Devereaux Peters, who went on to be chosen in the first round (third overall selection) of the 2012 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx. Peters subsequently earned her first WNBA title with Minnesota in 2013.

As a fifth-year senior under Owens' tutelage in 2011-12, Peters tied longstanding school records for 15-rebound games (7) and 15-point/15-rebound games (4) in a single campaign, with both marks first set nearly 35 years earlier during the program's first varsity season (1977-78). She also amassed a career-high 12 double-doubles in 2011-12, including nine in her final 18 games. What's more, she was the first player in program annals to pile up 75 blocks, 75 steals and 75 assists in one season, and was just the second NCAA Division I player since 2001-02 to pull off that feat at the time.

After battling back from an injury-riddled start to her college career, Owens led Peters into uncharted territory in the Notre Dame women's basketball record books as the first Fighting Irish player to register 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 200 blocks, 200 steals and 200 assists in her career.

Owens' reputation as one of the nation's premier post coaches emerged during her first stint at Notre Dame from 1995-2005. Her most famous pupil to date has been Ruth Riley ('01), who was a three-time All-America selection (1999-2001) and capped off her Fighting Irish career as the 2001 consensus national player-of-the-year. She went on to win two WNBA titles (2003 and 2006 with the Detroit Shock), as well as a gold medal with the 2004 U.S. Olympic Team, becoming one of only 10 players in women's basketball history to earn NCAA, WNBA and Olympic championships in her career. In June of 2019, Riley was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame.

"Carol Owens is one of the top assistant coaches in the nation, and in my opinion, she is the best skills coach in the country when it comes to the post position," Riley said. "As a young player, I was very grateful to find a school where I knew I would develop fundamentally at my position. Coach Owens has personal experience of being an All-America post player, and she uses that knowledge to teach and mold young student-athletes. I am very grateful for the time she invested in making me the best post player I could be."

Between her lengthy coaching runs at Notre Dame, Owens spent five seasons (2005-10) as head coach at her alma mater, Northern Illinois University. During her time in DeKalb, Owens' teams showed exceptional growth, as she posted a higher career winning percentage (.449) than either of her two predecessors and became only the second coach in the program's near-half century of existence (first in close to three decades) to register double-digit victories every year she walked the sidelines at Northern Illinois.

Owens' finest season at NIU came in 2006-07, when she led the Huskies to a 19-12 record, their best mark in 14 years, and the program's first berth in the Mid-American Conference Tournament semifinals since 2001-02. Two years later in 2008-09, Owens guided Northern Illinois to a 10-6 record in MAC play and a third-place finish in the conference's West Division, logging the Huskies' best regular-season league record since 2001-02. In fact, Northern Illinois has recorded 10 MAC wins three times since joining the conference in 1997-98 (including one 10-win campaign under Owens) and peaked with third-place finishes in the MAC West Division on four occasions (twice under Owens).

Her NIU teams were successful in the classroom as well, with the Huskie women's basketball program boasting a cumulative grade-point average (GPA) of 3.0 or better every semester under Owens. What's more, all 12 seniors that completed their careers at Northern Illinois during her tenure earned their degrees.

As if that weren't enough, Owens appeared on the international coaching scene through her work with USA Basketball. In 2008 and 2009, she served as head coach of the United States U18 and U19 teams, guiding those squads to gold medals at the 2008 FIBA U18 Americas Championships in Argentina, and the 2009 FIBA U19 World Championships in Thailand. In 2008, Owens was named USA Basketball's Developmental Coach of the Year, and prior to that, she spent two summers (2006-07) as an assistant coach for Team USA, collecting two more gold medals (2006 FIBA U18 Americas; 2007 FIBA U19 Worlds) as an aide under current DePaul head coach (and U.S. Senior National Team assistant coach) Doug Bruno. Owens also coached former Notre Dame point guard Melissa Lechlitner ('10) on that 2007 USA squad that took gold at the U19 World Championships.

For many years, Owens has been an important contributor within the women's basketball coaching community. In 2008, she was selected to serve on the Board of Directors for both the Black Coaches & Administrators (BCA) and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA), serving on the latter body's Executive Committee as the WBCA secretary before stepping down in 2011 to take a more active role on the BCA Board of Directors. Subsequently, in September 2012, Owens was chosen as BCA president for the 2012-13 academic year, helping that organization through a successful transition period that included the introduction of a new executive director. Owens currently serves on the Board of Directors for the WEcoach organization.

Owens originally came to Notre Dame in 1995 following two seasons as an assistant at Michigan, where she began her coaching career after enjoying a three-year professional playing stint in Japan, Spain and Italy.

As a standout player at Northern Illinois from 1985-90 (she missed the '86-87 season with a knee injury), Owens compiled a very impressive resume. A two-time Kodak (now WBCA) Coaches' All-District IV Team selection (1989 and 1990), Owens scored 2,102 points and averaged 18.0 points per game over four campaigns, covering 117 games. She also captained the Huskies for four seasons and, in her final collegiate campaign (1989-90), she guided Northern Illinois to the best record in school history (26-5), as the Huskies went undefeated in North Star Conference play (12-0) and earned the school's first-ever NCAA Tournament bid.

Owens finished her NIU career with 13 school records, most notably standing as Northern Illinois' all-time leader in scoring, blocked shots, free throws made, free throw attempts and field-goal percentage — to this day, she remains the Huskies' career leader in blocks, free throws made and consecutive double-digit scoring games. In addition, she was the first player (male or female) in school history to score 2,000 points and grab 1,000 rebounds.

A native of Chicago, Owens received her bachelor of arts degree in communications from Northern Illinois in 1990. She was selected by the faculty of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences to serve as Commencement Marshal of her graduating class and was named Northern Illinois' Outstanding Woman. In addition, Owens was the recipient of the Student Leadership Award.

In 1995, Owens was inducted into the Northern Illinois University Athletic Hall of Fame and followed up that honor with her induction into the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association (IBCA) Hall of Fame in 2001, and the Illinois High School Hall of Fame in 2014.

ABOUT WASHINGTON

1993 Notre Dame alumnae Coquese Washington returned home on May 27, 2020 when Karen & Kevin Keyes Family Head Coach Niele Ivey announced her as associate head coach on her staff. She will begin year two under Coach Ivey for the 2021-22 season. It will mark her 10th overall season as an assistant at Notre Dame.

Washington donned the Irish uniform from 1989-93 and helped the program reach its first NCAA Tournament in 1992. Washington was later an assistant coach under Muffet McGraw from 1999-07 and tutored Ivey on the way to the program's first national title in 2001.

"I am thrilled to announce that Coquese Washington has accepted the position of Associate Head Coach," Coach Ivey stated. "It's an absolute blessing to welcome Coquese back home to Notre Dame. Her experience as a former player and alum, WNBA champion and former head coach, plus her national championship coaching pedigree, provides me with incredible knowledge and wisdom. I am so excited to have her join my staff as we build this new era of Notre Dame women's basketball."

Washington arrived to South Bend after a one-year stint as an associate head coach with the Oklahoma Sooners. Prior, she made a name for herself as the head coach at Penn State from 2007-19, amassing a 209-169 record and guiding the Lady Lions to four NCAA Tournament appearances and three Big Ten titles. Washington was the first female African-American head coach in Penn State history.

"Notre Dame has always held a special place in my heart," Washington stated. "So much of who I am can be traced back to my time at Notre Dame both as a student and as a young professional. Being a part of our women's basketball staff again is truly energizing. I would only leave a program like Oklahoma for one reason – to return home."

From 2012-14, the Lady Lions claimed three-straight Big Ten regular-season titles (outright wins for the first two), making them one of four programs in conference history to win three or more regular-season crowns in a row.

She also guided Penn State to Sweet 16 appearances in 2012 and 2014. Furthermore, Washington guided 17 players to All-Big Ten status on 32 separate occasions.

Washington earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors three times (2012-14), while also being named a two-time WBCA Region Six Coach of the Year (2012, 2013) and two-time finalist for WBCA National Coach of the Year (2012, 2013). She was also selected as the 2011 and 2014 Black Coaches Association (BCA) Female Coach of the Year.

Washington also flashed her prowess on the recruiting trail, signing four Top-25 recruiting classes including six McDonald's All-Americans. Prior to Washington's arrival, Penn State had only signed one McDonald's All-American.

"It's exciting to imagine the levels of success our program will experience under Coach Ivey's leadership," Washington added. "Working with dedicated folks like Carol Owens, Michaela Mabrey and the rest of the staff, our program will continue to have a dynamic impact on our University, our student-athletes and our community in a variety of ways."

In her original stint on the sidelines at Notre Dame, Washington helped the Fighting Irish to four Sweet 16 appearances in eight seasons, including the famous 2001 national title. Washington was instrumental in helping the Irish secure eight consecutive Top-25 recruiting classes, a feat only accomplished by two other programs in the country at the time (Connecticut and Tennessee). Additionally, Washington coached five different Irish All-Americans, including Ivey and Megan Duffy (current Marquette Head Coach), and worked closely with Alicia Ratay (Notre Dame record holder).

During her time in an Irish uniform, Washington rewrote the Irish record books. She dished out 554 career assists (ranks seventh all-time), while recording 307 career steals (ranks third). In fact, her 2.7 steals-per-game career average still holds the top spot.

Off the court, the newly-minted Irish coach was just as impressive, as Washington earned her degree in just three years. Later, she earned her Juris Doctorate from Notre Dame in 1997, earning "Double-Domer" status.

Washington played six seasons in the WNBA and is one of five Irish to have won a WNBA title, achieving the feat with the Houston Comets in 2000. Washington was also a key figure in helping create the WNBA Players Association (WNBPA), serving as the founding president of the WNBPA from 1999 until 2001. She served as the executive vice president of the WNBPA from 2001 until her retirement in 2003.

In addition, Washington led negotiations for the association's first collective bargaining agreement as the association's president. As the executive vice president, she was a mainstay in the negotiations for the league's second collective bargaining agreement, which brought about the first free agency system in women's professional sports.

Washington's service to the game has gone beyond just coaching. She served on the WBCA Board of Directors and led a committee tasked to grow the game of women's basketball. She won a gold medal with Team USA at the 2013 World University Games and served on the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Committee from 2009-12. She was a member of the Kay Yow Cancer Fund Board of Directors from 2012-15 and also served five years on the NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee.

- 2017–18: Miami (Ohio), Assistant Coach
- 2016–17: Miami, Coordinator of Program & Player Development

ABOUT MABREY

On August 26, 2019, Michaela Mabrey came home, joining then Muffet McGraw's staff as Assistant Coach. Now under Karen & Kevin Keyes Family Head Coach Niele Ivey, Michaela will be in her third season for the 2021-22 campaign.

In her first year with the Irish, Mabrey was instantly recognized by the WBCA, landing on their Thirty Under 30 honoree list, which was created to recognize 30 up-and-coming women's basketball coaches age 30 and under at all levels of the game. Each honoree has exemplified their involvement in community service, mentorship and impact on others, professional manner, and attitude and professional association involvement.

Mabrey worked closely with Katlyn Gilbert and Anaya Peoples, whom both thrived in their first full seasons, being named to the ACC All-Freshman Team. In fact, Gilbert was just 1-of-2 freshmen in all of Division I to average at least 13.5 points, 2.5 assists, 2.0 steals and 4.0 rebounds. Next, Peoples was clearly the early favorite for ACC Rookie of the Year. At the time of her injury on Jan. 12, Peoples led all ACC freshmen in rebounds (8.1), shooting percentage (.457) and steals (1.9), while ranking second in points (12.6). Lastly, Gilbert and Brunelle went down as the highest-scoring freshmen duo in Notre Dame history.

"Michaela came to Notre Dame confident, knowledgeable and ready," McGraw said. "I've been amazed with how she can break down film and do a scouting report. She can recruit with anybody, and against anybody, because she has that innate ability to relate to the players and the parents. The relationship she has fostered with the kids and developing them is something that you typically grow into, but she hit the ground running."

Part of the winningest class in Notre Dame women's basketball history (2012-16), Mabrey's squads advanced to three Final Fours, including two title game appearances (2014 & 2015). The Irish also swept regular season and conference tournament titles all four years in which Mabrey was on campus (one Big East + three ACC). In addition, Mabrey served as a team captain in her final two seasons.

Over her time at Notre Dame, Mabrey emerged as one of the elite three-point shooters in the country. The New Jersey native finished her career with 228 made three-pointers (fifth all-time), a .396 three-point shooting percentage (sixth all-time) and played in 142 total games (ninth all-time). Michaela and her sister Marina were the only two Fighting Irish players to make at least 60 three-pointers in three seasons.

"Dreams do come true," Mabrey exclaimed. "I am blessed to have the opportunity to share my experiences and knowledge with the next group of Notre Dame women's basketball student-athletes. I thank God and Coach McGraw for allowing my path to come full circle back to Notre Dame. I can't wait for this next chapter and to get this season started. Go Irish!"

After graduation, Mabrey became the coordinator of program and player development at the University of Miami for the 2016-17 season, aiding the staff in preparing scouting material and conducting on-campus recruiting visits. The following year, Mabrey moved to Miami (Ohio) as an assistant, where the Redhawks went on to produce a 21-11 record and recorded the biggest turn-around that year in NCAA Division I by a first-year coaching staff.

For the 2018-19 season, Mabrey accepted a Director of Recruiting position at LSU. There she coordinated the daily recruiting operational and logistical processes for the women's basketball program.

2020-21 SEASON IN REVIEW

IVEY ERA

Welcome to the Ivey Era. McGraw retired with 936 career wins, which ranked sixth all-time among Division I coaches

Enter Ivey, who can be linked to all nine of Notre Dame's Final Fours - two as a player and seven as an assistant coach. All-in-all, Ivey spent 17 combined years on campus before receiving the head coaching job.

In fact, Notre Dame's last decade of dominance (2010-19) had Ivey's handprints written all over it. No other program had produced more trips to the national title game (six) in that span. Plus, the Irish posted the third most wins (339) during that span as well. That decade also consisted of 14 conference championships (eight regular-season plus six tournament titles split between the BIG EAST and ACC), seven Final Fours and a 2018 national championship.

TRAILBLAZER

When Niele Ivey accepted the assistant coaching position with the Memphis Grizzlies, she became 1-of-9 active female coaches in the NBA. Over the course of the season, Ivey helped develop a young team, with a new coaching staff, into a playoff contender. Ivey worked with several different position groups with the Grizzlies, but primarily with standout guards Jarien Jackson and Ja Morant, as the latter won 2020 NBA Rookie of the Year honors.

When Ivey accepted the head coaching position at Notre Dame, she then became the first black female head coach of any sport in the history of the school.

ACC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR, MADDY WESTBELD

The ACC Head Coaches voted Maddy Westbeld as their Rookie of the Year winner. Westbeld entered an elite Notre Dame club, becoming just the sixth player in program history to win a conference's Rookie of the Year award. She also is the second to do so in the ACC, joining Briana Turner who accomplished the feat in 2015.

Westbeld's awards haul didn't stop there. Notre Dame's leading scorer and rebounder also collected First Team All-ACC honors as voted upon by the Blue-Ribbon media panel and a Second-Team nod from the Head Coaches Panel. Westbeld also naturally landed on the ACC All-Freshman list.

Previous Notre Dame Rookie of the Year winners:

ACC

Brianna Turner (2015)

Big East

Jewell Loyd (2013)

Jacqueline Batteast (2002)

Alicia Ratay (2000)

Midwestern Collegiate Conference

Beth Morgan (1994)

AWARDS CONTINUED ... WBCA ALL-AMERICA

Westbeld's awards haul wasn't done there. She later picked up WBCA All-America Regional Finalist honors. She became 1-of-3 ND freshmen all-time to earn said distinction, joining greats Skylar Diggins-Smith and Brianna Turner.

THE MOST COMPLETE FRESHMAN IN THE ACC

One could make the argument that Maddy deserved the Blue-Ribbon media nod for Rookie of the Year as well. She was not only the most complete freshman in the ACC this past season, but also one of the most complete in the entire country. Here's the stats to back it up:

- ACC Freshmen-only stat rankings: 1st in Scoring, 2nd in Rebounding, 2nd in Steals, 4th in Assists & 4th in Blocks. She was the only freshman in the league to rank in the top-four in all above-mentioned categories.
- Maddy was the only freshman in the country who averaged at least 15 points, 7.5 rebounds, 2.5 assists & 1.4 steals. Overall, she was just 1-of-8 Division-I players.
- Ranked 4th in the country among freshmen in the Points+Rebounds+Assists/Game category with 25.5 - topped ACC freshmen.
- Her 15.2 ppg led all ACC rookies and ranked 10th overall in the league. Nationally, her scoring average ranked 11th among all Division I freshmen.

"She's been the most dominant player I've seen coming in as a freshman, outside of Arike and Skylar. She has a college body. Her work ethic is incredible. I knew she would make an immediate impact with this team." - Coach Ivey

IMMEDIATE IMPACT - OLIVIA MILES

Notre Dame received a major midseason pick-me-up in star point guard Olivia Miles, who became the program's first ever early enrollee. Miles arrived on campus on Jan. 18 and partook in a week of quarantine. Once she was cleared, she started practicing with the team on Jan. 27. She had three practices under her belt heading into Syracuse, where she made an immediate impact.

Miles brought a new look and swagger to the Irish offense. The freshman ended the season on a five-game double-digit scoring streak, totaling 52 points (10.4 ppg) in that span. Her 9.3 ppg on her short season ranked as the 4th best on the squad, while her 3.5 apg took the top mark.

More impressive was the fact that the 18-year old was thrown into the fire -- four out of her six games were against top-5 seeds in the ACC tournament.

Miles made up one-half of Coach Ivey's top-five nationally ranked recruiting class that also featured guard Sonia Citron. Miles was ranked the No. 8 prospect overall by ESPN and the No. 2 point guard.

POST-COVID PAUSE STATS

The future certainly looks bright because the two best players coming out of the team's Covid-pause were Westbeld and Miles. Over the last four games, Westbeld nearly averaged a double-double with 16.8 ppg and 9.5 rpg. The Ohio native shot 56.8 percent from the field and converted 14-of-15 from the free-throw line. Miles was the lone other player in double figures with 10.5 ppg, to go with her 4.8 apg. In fact, the duo not only boasted the top two scoring averages, but the top two assist totals as well, with Miles leading with 19, followed by nine from Westbeld.

WHERE MADDY RANKED AMONG ND FRESHMEN

We talked about where Maddy ranked among the top freshmen in the country, but what about Notre Dame all-time?

Westbeld's 15.2 ppg scoring average ranked in the top-three all-time behind Shari Matvey (17.6 in 1979-80) and Beth Morgan (17.9 in 1993-94). Furthermore, her 7.9 rpg tied Brianna Turner for fourth.

APPROACHING MILESTONE: 700

When it comes to the Mabrey family, that's a whole lot of buckets. Queens of three some might say. Marina graduated in 2019 as the program's all-time career made three-pointer leader, draining a total of 274. Michaela converted a career total of 228, while Dara now boasts 195. All-in-all, the Mabreys have totaled a whopping 697 splash-downs.

TURN THE THREE AROUND

At the end of the 2019-20 season, the Irish ranked dead last in the ACC in three-point shooting percentage (.271). Fast forward to now and the Irish recorded quite the renaissance from beyond the arc, primarily thanks to the quartet of Mabrey, Brunelle, Westbeld and Walker. In fact, the Irish converted 35.5 percent from three, which not only ranked as the 4th best in the ACC, but also 41st in the country.

Dara Mabrey led the ACC in three-point shooting percentage for a portion of the season, but ultimately finished 5th with her 38.5 percent. That number also ranks 61st in the nation.

Westbeld ultimately led the team in three-point shooting percentage with her 38.8 percent. Walker followed right behind at 38.5 percent, while Brunelle clocked in at 38.3 percent.

HERE COME THE IRISH -- MAYA DODSON

On Feb. 2, Coach Ivey tweeted, best day of 2021 by far. Shortly after the program announced the addition of Stanford transfer Maya Dodson, who will be eligible to play for the 2021-22 season.

The 6-3 forward from Alpharetta, Georgia, had previously opted out of her senior season at Stanford. In just three years with the Cardinal, Dodson already worked herself into the program's all-time top-10 in career blocks (78) and career field goal percentage (.497).

"I am thrilled to welcome Maya Dodson to our Notre Dame family," Karen & Kevin Keyes Family Notre Dame Head Coach Niele Ivey stated. "She is a program changer and the perfect fit for the culture that I am cultivating. She is highly driven with an incredible skillset and work ethic. She brings great experience and leadership to a very young and talented core. I can't wait to get to work with her!"

SAM'S SHOOTING IMPROVEMENT

Now the stats show that Brunelle certainly didn't take as many shots as she did last year, but they do show that her accuracy vastly improved. Brunelle went from averaging 13.2 shot attempts/game to 7.4 this year.

However, her percentages are way up in year two. She went from shooting 31.5 percent from three as a freshman to 38.3 percent this year. She also went from 39.7 percent overall to 48.4 percent, which ranked 3rd on the team behind Vaughn and Miles.

STAT-SHEET STUFFER ANAYA

Anaya produced three 5-5-5 'Stat-Sheet Stuffer' games this season. A stat-sheet stuffer is when you get five or more in three major stat categories.

Due to her success to pad the stats, Peoples was the only player in the ACC to average at least nine points, six rebounds, 1.5 steals and two assists.

In addition, Peoples owned two double-doubles on the year and flirted with three others, coming either one rebound or one point short.

FINAL RESUME

Notre Dame's 10-10 record resulted in a NET ranking of 56. Their average opponent NET ranking was 13. The Irish were 4-6 against NET top-50 opposition. As a result, come NCAA Selection Monday, the Irish were listed in the First Four Out category and their 24-year NCAA Tournament streak concluded.

TIGHT GAMES AND 4TH QUARTER RIDES

The Irish went on a wild ride over the first half of the ACC season. The Irish held substantial leads in almost every single game in January, but went 4-3 in that month.

At Boston College, Notre Dame was up 60-48 with 3:29 remaining, but lost 64-61.

At North Carolina, Notre Dame was up 70-63 with 4:36 left, but dropped a 78-73 decision. The Tar Heels outscored the Irish 24-15 in the fourth.

At Syracuse, the Irish once held a 15-point lead and were up 65-58 heading into the fourth. Then the Orange outscored the Irish 23-4 in the fourth to take it 81-69.

Now, the Irish did hold on to some fourth quarter leads during their three-game win streak, but still saw double-digit leads shrink to a one-possession game.

ND was up 67-53 with 7:00 on the clock before Wake Forest trimmed it to one possession. ND went on for the 79-72 win.

At Virginia Tech, the Irish built a lead as large as 21, before the Hokies cut it to 61-58 with 19.5 seconds left. ND then surged ahead for the 65-60 victory.

Later on in late February, the Irish boasted an 18-point lead in the fourth against Florida State, until the Seminoles produced a late flurry to make it a six-point game. The Irish held on for the 72-64 victory.

MABREY MAGIC

Dara went off for a career high 34 points in the season opener - marking the most prolific Irish debut in history. She now owns family bragging rights, topping both the career highs of her two sisters. Dara went 7-of-14 from three, tying for the second most three-pointers in a single game.

SISTER, SISTER ... SISTER

With Dara donning an Irish uniform this season, she completed the Mabrey lineage at Notre Dame, following in the footsteps of her older sisters, Michaela and Marina. Only one other Division I team has had three sisters come through the same program - Washington State, who had three all on the same team the past two years (not triplets) - the Molina sisters.

What's also fun to note, is that Irish fans can wait to see if the Mabrey and Westbeld combo can produce another magical Final Four run. Marina Mabrey and Kat Westbeld captured a national title together in 2018.

GUARD UNIVERSITY WELCOMING NEW MEMBERS

First year at the helm and Coach Ivey landed a top-5 recruiting class in Sonia Citron and Olivia Miles. Miles ranked No. 8 overall in her class and the second ranked point guard. Miles attends Blair Academy, where last season she averaged 13.6 points, 8.1 rebounds and 7.6 assists, on her way to a Prep A State Championship in 2020.

Citron ranked No. 16 overall in her class and sixth at her position. Citron is coming off of a banner year at The Ursuline School, where she led the Koalas to a 24-0 record and first Section I title since 2003. Citron was named the 2020 New York State Gatorade Player of the Year after averaging 23.8 points, 10.4 rebounds, 3.5 steals and 4.3 assists.

Both Miles & Citron have history as teammates, winning a gold medal together with the U16 USA National Team in 2019 in Chile. Citron was named to the All-Tournament Team. They've also played AAU ball together with the Philadelphia Belles.

WELCOME BACK ABBY

It's been a long road back for Abby Prohaska, who took a medical redshirt last season after being diagnosed with bilateral pulmonary embolism in October. In fact it was 599 total days between the 2019 NCAA title game against Baylor and the season opener.

"When I first found out, my heart dropped into my stomach and didn't have any words. I was surrounded by my medical staff and team who comforted me. I just remembered there's more to life than basketball and Coach McGraw made sure that my health was the No. 1 priority. She made me believe I could get over this. I am truly blessed to play and it's an opportunity I will take advantage of."

Prohaska played a pivotal role off the bench for the 2019 NCAA runner-up squad. In fact, she was the spark in the second half rally over Stanford in the Elite Eight.

Against Miami (OH), Prohaska recorded the first double-digit scoring effort of her career with 10 points.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

A NOTE ON RANKINGS

The numbers in front of the opponent indicate Notre Dame's rankings in the Associated Press poll and WBCA/USA Today poll at the time of the game. The numbers following the opponent indicate the opponent's ranking in both polls. The first number (or only one listed) is the AP poll ranking. The 1988-89 season was the first year of the WBCA/USA Today poll. NR indicates the team was not ranked in the top 25 at game time.

INTERNATIONAL SUCCESS

Through the years, the University of Notre Dame women's basketball program not only has achieved success during the college season, but also has seen its players and coaches reach similar heights on the international stage while representing both the United States and Canada.

All told, the Fighting Irish have seen 28 players who have successfully competed in domestic and/or international competition (with either USA or Canada Basketball), with the players having won 53 medals (including 36 golds, led by Ruth Riley's gold medal as a member of the 2004 U.S. Olympic Team). At least one Notre Dame player (either an alumnus, current player or incoming freshman) has played for a USA or Canada Basketball team at an international tournament in 16 of the past 18 years (2004-21), with the Fighting Irish collecting at least one gold medal each summer in that span (no competition played in summer of 2020 due to Covid-19).

Notre Dame just doubled its amount of Olympians for the 2020 games in Tokyo, as Skylar Diggins-Smith and Jewell Loyd will go for gold for the first time. The Irish now boast 4 Olympians, as the duo join Ruth Riley-Hunter and Natalie Achonwa (Canada).

Freshman Sonia Citron will keep the tradition going for the current crop of Irish, as she qualified for the U19 Team USA World Cup team.

Notre Dame's junior class of Sam Brunelle and Anaya Peoples each have won gold, while Abby Prohaska achieved bronze at the 2016 FIBA U17 World Championships. Brunelle has won gold three times: the 2018 Youth Olympic Games, 2018 FIBA U17 World Cup and the 2017 FIBA Americas U16 Championship. Meanwhile Peoples won the 2018 FIBA Americas U18 Championship.

On Sept. 30, 2018, Jewell Loyd won a gold medal the FIBA World Cup with the USA National Team, becoming the first USA player to win both a five-on-five World Cup and 3x3 World Cup (2014) gold medal.

In August of 2017, Ogunbowale and the U23 USA squad travelled to Tokyo and won the Four Nations Tournament, defeating host Japan, Australia and Canada in a three-game round-robin tournament.

Natalie Achonwa became the first Irish to be a two-time Olympian, appearing for Team Canada in Rio in 2016 and London in 2012. She led Canada to a quarterfinals appearance in 2016 and also reached the quarters at the 2012 London games. In 2009, Achonwa made history as the youngest player selected to the Canadian Senior National Team when she was just 16 years old.

The summer of 2015 was particularly busy for Notre Dame on the international front, led by Achonwa ('14), who nabbed a pair of gold medals with Team Canada at the Pan Am Games and FIBA Americas Championship. Ogunbowale (3x3 National Championships) also earned a gold medal with USA Basketball at the FIBA 3x3 World Championships, while Marquez (Pan Am Games) added a silver medal to her collection.

In 2014, Jewell Loyd earned two gold medals in 3x3 play with the USA Basketball 3x3 National Team at the national championships in Colorado Springs, as well as the FIBA 3x3 World Championships in Moscow, Russia.

That same summer, Turner earned her fifth career USA Basketball gold medal (first since signing to attend Notre Dame) as a starter and captain with the 2014 USA U18 Americas Championship Team. One of Turner's teammates on that squad was current Fighting Irish freshman guard Marina Mabrey (who declared her intention to enroll at Notre Dame later that year).

Skylar Diggins ('13) and Kayla McBride ('14) were members of the 2014-16 USA Basketball player pool and were among 16 finalists for the 2014 USA World Championship Team. They were the first Irish players to suit up with the USA Senior Women's National Team since Riley's 2004 Olympic appearance, and McBride, who joined the player pool prior to her senior season (2013-14), became the first active Notre Dame player to train with the USA Senior Women's National Team.

Along with Achonwa's Olympic debut in the summer of 2012, Michaela Mabrey laid the foundation for her college career by leading the USA U18 National Team to the gold medal at the 2012 FIBA Americas U18 Championship in Puerto Rico. Mabrey was joined on that team by Marquez, giving the Fighting Irish another tie to international championship gold.

At the 2012 U17 World Championship in Amsterdam, Netherlands, Lindsay Allen and Turner combined to lead the Americans to a 9-0 record and the gold medal.

As it turns out, Notre Dame is no stranger to international success on the U17 level, as Loyd helped USA Basketball to the title at the inaugural FIBA U17 World Championship in 2010 in Toulouse, France.

Diggins wrapped the summer of 2012 in historic fashion, earning her fifth USA Basketball gold medal, pacing the United States to the gold at the inaugural 3x3 World Championships in Athens, Greece.

A year earlier, Diggins teamed with fellow Notre Dame All-Americans Natalie Novosel and Devereaux Peters to become the first Fighting Irish trio to win gold medals for the same USA Basketball team in the same tournament, helping the U.S. to a 6-0 record and the 2011 World University Games title in Shenzhen, China.

Diggins averaged 12.3 ppg., while also leading all tournament players in assists (4.8 avg.) and ranking among the top 10 at the event in steals (third with team-high 3.3 spg.) and field-goal percentage (10th at .475). In fact, Diggins narrowly missed breaking two longstanding USA Basketball World University Games records, with her 20 steals ranking third all-time behind the 21 thefts collected in 1987 by Alisa Scott and Women's Basketball Hall of Famer/1988 Wade Trophy recipient Teresa Weatherspoon. Diggins' 29 assists also are third-most by a USA Basketball player at the World University Games, one off the record shared by Kamie Ethridge (1985) and Suzie McConnell (1987).

Peters also had an impressive showing at the World University Games as the leading American scorer off the bench (and fourth overall) with 10.0 points per game. She also was fourth on the team in rebounding (5.3 rpg.), and ranked among the top 10 in the entire tournament in field-goal percentage (fifth at .560, second-best on team) and blocked shots (ninth with team-high 1.0 bpg.).

Novosel was one of the "glue" players for the United States, starting all six games in her international debut and doing a bit of everything, winding up with 4.5 points, 3.3 rebounds and 1.6 steals per game, the latter total ranking fourth on the team.

Led by the Notre Dame trio, the United States set new USA Basketball World University Games records for scoring margin (+45.0 points per game) and average rebounds per game (56.5 rpg.). The Americans also posted their second-best scoring average ever at the World University Games, and best in 20 years (97.8 points per game); the record is 105.0 ppg. by the 1991 squad that included Hall of Famers Lisa Leslie, Dawn Staley and Ruthie Bolton), as well as their second-best defensive scoring average at the tournament, and best in 38 years (52.8 ppg.; the record is 48.0 ppg. set by the inaugural 1973 team).

Like Mabrey, McBride earned a place on the United States U18 National Team back in 2010, a squad that took home the gold medal at the FIBA U18 Americas Championship in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Owens made her mark as both an assistant coach and head coach in the USA Basketball program from 2006-09, helping the United States win four gold medals in as many international tournaments under her tutelage. The Chicago native coached twice at the FIBA U18 Americas Championship, striking gold as an assistant in 2006 and a head coach in 2008, and twice at the FIBA U19 World Championships, winning titles as an assistant in 2007 and head coach in 2009. During her four successful head-coaching runs with USA Basketball, Owens also had the opportunity to work with Diggins, adding an even greater Golden Dome glitter to the Americans' championship medals.

Other representatives of the Notre Dame women's basketball program to compete on the world stage include: Melissa Lechlitner ('10), who struck gold with the 2007 Women's U19 World Championship Team (making Lechlitner the first South Bend-area female to earn a gold medal in international basketball competition and paving the way for Diggins' gold rush), Megan Duffy ('06), who claimed a gold medal as a co-captain and starter for the 2005 USA World University Games Team, and Riley ('01), who made prior USA Basketball appearances in 1998 and 1999 before her historic Olympic gold medal in 2004, which made her one of just nine women's basketball players in history to win an NCAA title, a WNBA championship and an Olympic gold medal. Two other former Fighting Irish All-Americans — Katryna Gaither ('97) (two teams, two medals) and Cunningham ('97) (four teams, three medals) — also have suited up for Team USA since 1996.

In earlier years, Notre Dame also had several players compete at the U.S. Olympic Festival during its existence from 1978-95 — Trena Keys (1982-83 for North Team), Heidi Bunek (1985-86 for North Team), Karen Robinson (1987 and 1989 for East Team) and Kristin Knapp (1991 for West Team). Both Bunek and Robinson earned silver and bronze medals in their two appearances, while Knapp took home a bronze in her only visit.
