Irish and Spartans Meet for Third Time

- After splitting the first two games between the Spartans this season, the two teams will square off for the final time at Frank Eck Stadium on Tuesday.
- The first matchup of the season between the Spartans and Irish took place at US Bank Stadium as part of the Cambria College Classic.
- The Irish came away with a 2-1 win after Jack Brannigan hit the go-ahead home run in the seventh inning.
- In the second matchup, Michigan State won 6-2 in the matchup at Comerica Park in Detroit.
- This will be the sixth time the Irish have squared off with a B1G team this season and they are 4-1 in those games. The most recent win over a B1G team came on April 12 in the 14-5 home win over Michigan.
- Michigan State leads the all-time series 81-58 but the Irish have won four of the last six games against the Spartans.
- The Spartans enter the midweek matchup with a 21-22 overall record and are 6-9 in conference play.
- The Spartans are playing their final game of the three-game series against Penn State today after dropping the first two games of the series. The series was shifted to Sunday and Monday because of weather.
- The Irish are back on the diamond for the first time in nine days. Their most recent action was a weekend series win after winning two-of-three games against Boston College for their fifth ACC series win of the season.

11-Run Inning Propels Irish to Series Win Over Boston College

- In their first rubber game of the season, the Irish jumped out to an early lead on Boston College with a 5-2 advantage heading into the sixth inning.
- Boston College took their first lead of the game after plating six runs in the frame and held an 8-5 lead.
- The Irish responded in a big way, scoring 11 runs in the bottom half of the inning to take control of the game and eventually led to the 16-10 victory to clinch the series.
- After trailing for the first time in the game, the first four batters in the bottom of the sixth reached base and three of them scored to tie the game at 8-8.
- The Eagles got an out in the inning but the next two runners reached to load the bases for Jared Miller.
- He smashed his first career grand slam, the second slam for the Irish in as many games, to put the Irish back in front for good at 12-8.
- Notre Dame was not done in the inning as they hit two more home runs, an inside-the-park home run from Ryan Cole and a two-run shot by Jack Zyska, to grow the lead to 16-8.

- Bertrand had one of the best starts of his Irish career after tossing 7.2 innings of scoreless ball with a career-high 12 strikeouts.
- The 12 strikeouts were the most in a game by an Irish pitcher since 2019.
- The scoreless game carried into extras as neither team scored over the first 11 innings of the game and a runner did not make it past second base.
- In the 12th, Carter Putz doubled with two outs and then advanced to third on a wild pitch.
- Ryan Cole faced a 2-2 count and took the fastball clear over the wall in left for the game's first runs.

- Alex Rao came back out and set the Seminoles down in order to close out the 2-0 win.
- It was the first time in program history that the Seminoles were shut out in an extra inning game.
- The Irish strcuk out 18 batters in the game, the most in a game since 2008 when they struck out 18 against South Florida.
- Bertrand was named ACC Pitcher of the Week following his performance against the Seminoles.

Irish Run Past Northern Illinois
- The Irish were hot on the base paths and at the plate in the 11-2 win over Northern Illinois.
- They scored double-figure runs for the eighth time this season and had a season-best seven steals.
- The seven steals were the most in a game since 2020, when the Irish tallied seven in a win over Presbyterian.
- Zack Prajzner led the way at the plate with a team-high three hits and three runs. Ryan Cole set a career-high with three steals for the game and Jared Miller hit his first home run of the season.
- The Irish broke the game open after scoring five runs in the sixth inning. It was the 10th time this season the Irish have scored five or more runs in a single inning.
- On the mound, five different pitchers saw action against the Huskies.
- Freshman Roman Kimball earned the win after 2.1 innings of scoreless relief. He allowed just one hit while setting a career high with four strikeouts.
- Fellow freshman Jack Findlay tossed 2.1 innings of work without allowing a runner to reach base. He tied a career high with three strikeouts.
- The staff limited Northern Illinois to two runs, the ninth time this season they have allowed two runs or fewer.

Top-Ranked Irish Defeat Valparaiso in Home Opener
- After over 5,000 plus miles and 72 hours of travel over the first four weeks of the season, the Irish opened the home slate with a 12-1 win over Valpo on March 15.
- The bats started early as the Irish scored two runs in each of the first three innings to jump out to a 6-0 lead.
- Brooks Coetzee III highlighted the scoring with his team-leading fifth home run of the season in the third inning.
- The Irish deployed a staff day on the mound as six pitchers saw action against the Beacons.
- Jack Findlay, Alex Rao, Caden Aoki, Roman Kimball, Liam Simon and Radek Birkholz all pitched at least an inning for the Irish and allowed just one run and five hits on the afternoon.
- The offense exploded for six runs in the eighth to - put the game out of reach.

- Jack Zyska hit his third home run of the season in the eighth and Brady Gumpf added his first career hit, a two-run double, down the left field line.
- The Irish scored in double-figures for the second-straight game and the sixth time this season.
- They also tallied 16 hits, the fifth time this season they have had 15 or more hits.
- On the mound, it was the fifth game this season the Irish have allowed one or fewer runs.

Irish Sweep #17 NC State with 11-4 Win
- The Irish brought the brooms out when they took down #17 NC State 11-4 on March 13 to sweep the weekend series (two games).
- Notre Dame took advantage of a number of Wolfpack miscues as six of the 11 runs for the Irish were scored on errors or wild pitches.
- The Irish plated 11 runs in the game, the fifth time this season they have scored 10 or more runs.
- Carter Putz led the Irish at the plate with a season-high three hits and Jared Miller added a season-high three runs.
- The Irish used big innings in the opening and closing sets of innings against the Wolfpack. They scored three runs in the first inning and scored seven runs over the final two innings.
- On the mound, the duo of John Michael Bertrand and Austin Temple never allowed the Wolfpack to take the lead on the afternoon.
- Bertrand tossed 5.0 innings as he earned his fourth win in as many starts this season.
- Temple pitched 4.0 of relief and tallied his first save with the Irish.
- The Irish allowed only four runs and they have allowed four runs or less in 11 of the 12 games this season.

Irish Score Eight-Unanswered in 8-4 Comeback Win Over #17 NC State
- The Irish faced their biggest deficit of the season when they opened ACC play against No. 17 NC State but battled back to win, 8-4, in 12 innings.
- The Irish trailed 4-0 heading into the seventh but scored three runs in the seventh and tied the game with a run in the eighth.
- Carter Putz got the scoring started with a solo home run, Jack Brannigan scored on a wild pitch and Zack Prajzner drove in Brooks Coetzee III to bring the Irish within one.
- In the eighth, Brannigan tied the game with a two-out RBI single that scored Jared Miller after his lead-off double.
- The bullpen kept the Irish in it as Alex Rao, Radek Birkholz, Ryan McLinskey and Brannigan tossed eight innings of scoreless relief as the Irish built the comeback.

- In the 12th, Zack Prajzner launched a solo home run to left to give the Irish their first lead of the game. They added three more runs in the inning to build out the lead.
- Brannigan came on for the final two outs in the 11th and shut the door in the 12th as he picked up his first win of the season. Four of his five outs that he recorded came via the strikeout.

Coetzee III Powers Irish to Midweek Win
- Brooks Coetzee III has been off to a torrid start and it continued in Notre Dame's 11-3 win over Elon.
- The senior from Mahomet, Illinois led the Irish from the dish after going 2-for-3 with a home run, double and tallied five RBI.
- The home run was his team-leading fourth of the season and he tied a career-high with the five RBI.
- Coetzee's home run was in the middle of an eight-run third inning that broke the game open for the Irish.
- The eight runs in the third tied a season high for most runs in an inning. The Irish also scored eight runs in the first inning against Marist on February 25.
- It is the most runs in an inning since April 24, 2021 when the Irish scored 12 in the eighth against Boston College.
- On the mound, freshman left-hander Jack Findlay made his collegiate debut against the Phoenix.
- He earned the win after 3.0 innings of scoreless ball with three strikeouts.
- A number of Irish pitchers saw time in the win including Caden Aoki, Matt Lazzaro, Radek Birkholz, Jackson Dennies and Roman Kimball.
- The six pitchers held the Phoenix to three runs on the night. The Irish staff have limited opponents to three runs or fewer in each of the last seven games.

Irish Win Cambria College Classic With 3-1 Victory Over Minnesota
- The Irish clinched the Cambria College Classic with a 3-1 win over Minnesota after another complete team performance.
- The Irish scored in the top of the first after Carter Putz doubled to the gap in right center that scored Jared Miller.
- Danny Neri and Spencer Myers both added to the Irish lead with RBI in the sixth and seventh inning.
- On the mound, Austin Temple was masterful in his best start with the Irish.
- The graduate transfer from Jacksonville carried a no-hitter into the seventh inning until the Gophers got on the board with a solo home run.
- He finished the inning to give him a final line of 7.0 innings pitched, one hit allowed, one walk and tied a career high with nine strikeouts.

- Will Mercer came on in relief and shut the door as he got the final two outs of the game for his first save this season.
- The Irish allowed just one hit in the game for the first time since April 18, 2007, when they gave up one hit in a 1-0 win over Purdue in 10 innings.
- After the game Temple, John Michael Bertrand, Ryan McLinskey and TJ Williams were named to the Cambria College Classic All-Tournament Team.
- Temple was named the tournament MVP and also was named ACC Pitcher of the Week.

Irish Outlast Michigan State
- Hits were hard to come by in Notre Dame's 2-1 win over Michigan State to improve to 2-1 in the Cambria College Classic.
- The Irish did not get their first hit until the 5th inning but made it count when TJ Williams doubled to left and advanced to third on an error.
- He scored on the next play after a sacrifice fly from Brooks Coetzee III.
- The Spartans tied it in the seventh but it lasted only one batter in the bottom of the seventh as the Irish regained the lead.
- Jack Brannigan launched a solo home run to lead off the inning to put the Irish back in front.
- On the mound, John Michael Bertrand pitched his third-straight quality start to begin the 2022 season.
- He went 7.0 innings and allowed just one run and one walk while striking out four.
- Ryan McLinskey came on for the final two innings and struck out four of the six batters he faced to close the game and earn his second save this year.
- The Irish only tallied two hits in the game but did not strike out at the plate the entire game.
- It is the first time since 2014 that the Irish did not strike out once in a game, a feat that they accomplished three times during the 2014 season.

Irish Cruise Past Illinois to Open Cambria College Classic
- The Irish began the Cambria College Classic with a win after the 6-1 result over the Illini.
- Brooks Coetzee III and TJ Williams both hit solo home runs and Jared Miller and Spencer Myers added 2-RBI singles to give the Irish their run support for the afternoon.
- It was Coetzee's team-leading third home run of the season and Williams' first career home run.
- On the mound, Aidan Tyrell had another strong start to begin the season. He went 5.0 innings to pick up his third win of the year and he allowed just one run and did not walk a batter.
- On the season, Tyrell has only allowed 1 earned run in 16.0 innings pitched.
- Alex Rao relieved Tyrell and tossed 3.0 innings without allowing a run and only one walk.

- Jack Brannigan got the final three outs of the game without allowing a hit to seal the win.

Irish Shutout Monmouth to Sweep Doubleheader
- In their final game in Greenville, the Irish pitching staff put together their best performance of the season in the 9-0 win to sweep the double header.
- Graduate student Austin Temple got the Irish started with five scoreless innings and just two hits allowed. He struck out five after setting a career high last week against Delaware.
- Up next was fellow graduate student Ryan McLinskey, who pitched 1.2 innings with one hit allowed and four of his five outs came via the strikeout.
- Senior Alex Rao came in next for his first appearance of the season and he did not allow a walk or a hit in 1.1 innings pitched, striking out three of the four batters he faced.
- Moving over from third base, junior Jack Brannigan closed the deal in the ninth. He struck out the side to end the game and give the staff 15 total strikeouts, the highest in a game this season.
- At the plate, Zack Prajzner and Danny Neri led the way with 3 RBI each. Neri set a career high with the three runs batted in.
- The 4-5-6 spots in the lineup of Carter Putz, Brannigan and TJ Williams each had a team-high two runs scored.

Bats Stay Hot in 16-2 Victory over Monmouth
- The Irish continued the torrid stretch at the plate in the 16-2 win over Monmouth in the first game of the double header.
- Both teams were scoreless through the first three innings until the Irish scored in the fourth and then scored in each of the last four innings they were at bat.
- A day after going 3-for-3 against Marist, Cole one-upped himself and went 4-for-4 against the Hawks with four RBI and three runs.
- Cole broke the game open in the sixth with his first career grand slam to extend the Irish lead to 8-0 at the time.
- He was the first Notre Dame player to hit a grand slam since Alex Brait last season in the opening series of the season against Wake Forest.
- Carter Putz also went yard in the game, his first of the season, in the fifth inning.
- On the mound, John Michael Bertrand was superb for the second-straight start.
- He tossed seven innings and allowed just one earned run and one walk while striking out a career-high 11 batters.
- It was the most strikeouts in a single game by an Irish player since Cameron Junker tallied 11 against Canisius in 2019.

- Following Bertrand on the mound was freshman Radek Birkholz, who made his collegiate debut against the Hawks.
- He pitched the final two innings without allowing a hit and struck out three batters to close the game.

Offense Explodes in 20-2 Win over Marist
- The Irish offense did not slow down in the second week of the season as they defeated Marist 20-2 on February 25 in Greenville.
- The Irish put up eight runs in the opening frame and never looked back as they scored the most runs in a regular season game since 2008.
- A number of Irish hitters got opportunities at the plate as 15 different players recorded a hit in the win.
- It was the most batters to get a hit in a game for the Irish over the last 16 seasons. The previous record was 13 against Georgetown in 2008.
- Ryan Cole led the Irish at the plate after going 3-for-3 with two runs and an RBI. DM Jefferson had a team-high 3 RBI in the win.
- On the mound, Aidan Tyrell improved to 2-0 after seven scoreless innings allowing just three hits, one walk and struck out five.
- Tyrell has not allowed a run in his 11.0 innings this season.
- Sammy Cooper made his collegiate debut out of the bullpen, tossing the final two innings, to close out the win.

Bats Power Irish to Season-Opening Win over Manhattan
- Notre Dame opened the 2022 season with a bang in the 17-2 win over Manhattan.
- It was the most runs scored in a season opener for the Irish since 2005 when they scored 18 against Florida A&M.
- The Irish tallied three triples in the game, including two in the first inning. It was the first time since April 3, 2016 against Wake Forest that the Irish had three triples in the same game.
- Brooks Coetzee III recorded his first multi-home run game in the win and set a career high with four hits.
- Coetzee III and Jack Brannigan both recorded 4 RBI in the win, the first time two players had 4 or more RBI in the same game since June 5, 2021 against UConn when Niko Kavadas tallied 8 and Ryan Cole had 6.
- The Irish totaled 19 hits in the win, the most since the UConn game when they had 21 during the South Bend Super Regional.
- LHP Aidan Tyrell got the win and tied a career high with six strikeouts. It was the second-straight start dating back to last season that Tyrell totaled six punchouts.

- Six different players made their Irish debuts in the win including DM Jefferson, Joey Spence, Jack Penney, Brady Gumpf, Nick DeMarco and Gerry Peacock.

Bertrand, McLinskey Too Much for Stetson
- In front of a sellout crowd in the second game of the Hatter Classic, the pitching duo of John Michael Bertrand and Ryan McLinskey shut down the hosts Stetson in the 5-3 Irish win.
- Bertrand picked up right where he left off in 2021 with a quality start to open the season.
- He pitched six innings without allowing an earned run and did not walk anybody.
- Bertrand struck out eight batters, one shy of his career high.
- David LaManna led the Irish at the plate with two hits and two RBI. His two-RBI single in the fourth inning extended the Irish lead.
- Following Bertrand on the mound, graduate transfer Ryan McLinskey made his Irish debut in the seventh inning.
- He pitched the final three innings without allowing an earned run or a walk and struckout six to earn the save.
- The Irish did not walk a batter in the win, the second-straight season the Irish had a game without allowing a walk.

2022 Team Captains
- Jared Miller, Carter Putz, David LaManna, Aidan Tyrell and John Michael Bertrand were voted captains by their teammates for the upcoming season.
- Miller is a graduate student and is a two-time team captain after being voted a captain ahead of the 2021 season. He played in 138 games heading into the season in his Irish career. Miller set career highs in 2021 in batting average (.257), home runs (4) and RBI (24).
- Putz is a senior that has played in 110 games in his career heading into the season. He played and started all 47 games last season and tied for the team lead with 57 hits and was second on the team in batting average (.305). He earned second team All-ACC accolades after the regular season and was one of six Irish named to the South Bend Regional All-Tournament Team.
- LaManna is a graduate student who has played in 149 games heading into the season. In 2021, he played in 44 games, made 39 starts and set career-best marks with five home runs, 29 RBI and 21 runs scored. LaManna also finished with a career-best fielding percentage of .997 after committing just two errors in 329 chances.

AT A GLANCE

- Tyrell is a senior who has played in 31 games and made nine starts heading into the season. He finished the 2021 season with career-best numbers across the board in ERA (2.70), wins (5), innings pitched (60.0) and strikeouts (43). His two best starts came in the postseason when he set a career high with 8.0 innings pitched in the regional-clinching win over Central Michigan. Then, he tied a career high with six strikeouts to extend the Irish season in the 9-1 win over Mississippi State.
- Bertrand is a graduate student who has played in 50 career games and made 38 starts heading into the season. He set career-highs in innings pitched (92.2), strikeouts (68) and wins (8) during the 2021 campaign. He led the Irish in all three categories and was named first team All-ACC. Heading into this season, Bertrand was named a third team All-American by Perfect Game and NCBWA.

Lethal Lineup is Back for 2022
- Coming off the most successful season in almost 20 years, a strong portion of the 2021 starting lineup returns for the Irish.
- Notre Dame returned eight of the nine every day starters from the 2021 lineup.
- That group accounted for 358 games started (84.6%) out of 423 from 2021.
- Notre Dame also returned four players that started all 47 games last season (Spencer Myers, Zack Prajzner, Jack Brannigan and Carter Putz).
- The production returning from that group included 85.5% of runs scored (284/332), 86.9% of hits (392/451), 75.3% of runs batted in (232/308) and 65.2% of home runs hit (43/66) from the 2021 season.
- Each of the eight returning starters hit at least four home runs in 2021 and five of those eight had six or more.
- Ryan Cole led the returners with a career-high nine home runs from 2021. Heading into the 2021 season, Cole had not hit a home run in his career.
- Spencer Myers and Carter Putz both had a team-high 57 hits in 2021.
- Myers was the leading stolen base returner after swiping 15 bags last season.

Weekend Rotation Returns
- Much like the lineup, the Irish returned all three starting pitchers from the weekend rotation in 2021.
- LHP John Michael Bertrand, LHP Aidan Tyrell and LHP Will Mercer returned 209.1 innings pitched from last season, 17 combined wins and four saves.
- Bertrand led the way for the Irish in 2021 with a team-high 92.2 innings pitched, eight wins and 68 strikeouts to just 22 walks.

- He was named First Team All-ACC following the regular season after he threw the most innings by an Irish pitcher since 2013.
- Bertrand threw a complete-game shutout in the postseason opener against Central Michigan, the first Irish complete game shutout in the postseason since the 2000 season. Bertrand had three complete games during the 2021 season.
- Heading into 2022, Bertrand was named a Third Team Preseason All-American by Perfect Game and the NCBWA.
- Tyrell tossed the best game of his Irish career in his final start of 2021. He threw 7.1 innings and allowed just one run to keep Notre Dame's season alive in the 9-1 win over Mississippi State in the Starkville Super Regional. He tied a career high with six strikeouts in the win.
- The week prior in the South Bend Regional, he set a career high with 8.0 innings pitched in the 14-2 regional-clinching win over Central Michigan.
- Mercer also had one his best starts of his Irish career in the postseason. He set a career high 7.0 innings pitched in the 26-3 win over UConn in the South Bend Regional.

Transfer Arms Add Wealth of Experience
- Similar to the 2021 season, the Irish bring in a strong stable of graduate transfer pitchers with a wealth of Division I experience.
- The trio of RHP Austin Temple, LHP Matt Lazzaro and RHP Ryan McLinskey combined threw 412.0 innings pitched in collegiate baseball before coming to the Irish.
- Temple began his career at Jacksonville. He threw 132.2 career innings with an 8-7 record with 124 strikeouts to 76 walks in four years with the Dolphins. He was named to the 2021 Preseason ASUN team before missing much of the season due to injury.
- Lazzaro played at Houston last season and beginning his collegiate career with John Michael Bertrand at Furman. He totaled 151.0 innings pitched prior to Notre Dame, four wins and a save to go with 114 strikeouts and 50 walks.
- McLinskey began his collegiate career at Seton Hall. He threw 128.1 career innings with a 7-5 record and one save with 142 strikeouts and 57 walks prior to Notre Dame. He was the Pirates Friday starter last season and ranked sixth in the BIG EAST with a 2.81 ERA.

Season to Remember in 2021
- In Link Jarrett's first full season at the helm of the Irish, they had their most successful season in almost 20 years.
- The Irish scored 19 runs in the series-sweeping win over North Carolina on May 2. It was the most runs they have scored in a conference game since joining the league in 2014.

- Notre Dame claimed its first ACC regular season title since joining the league and first regular season title since 2006.
- The Irish won 25 conference games in 2021 to tie the program record for most conference wins in a single season with the 1990 squad that won 25 games in the Mid-Western Collegiate Conference.
- They hosted a regional at Frank Eck Stadium for the first time since 2004 and won a regional for the first time since 2002.
- In the South Bend Regional, the Irish set a postseason record with 26 runs scored against UConn. It beat the previous postseason record of 25 runs against South Alabama in 2002.
- Niko Kavadas broke the program record for most home runs in a single season during the regional. He finished the season with 22 home runs, surpassing Frank Jacobs record of 20 from 1991.
- The Irish finished the season with a 34-13 (.723) record, their highest winning percentage in a single season since 2004 (.810).

2021 MLB Draft
- Two of the main cogs of the successful 2021 Irish baseball team heard their names called in the 2021 MLB Draft.
- RHP Tanner Kohlhepp was selected by the Detroit Tigers in the fifth round of the draft with the 135th overall pick.
- Kohlhepp was the highest drafted pitcher for the Irish since Peter Solomon was selected in the fourth round by the Astros in 2017.
- Kohlhepp led the Irish in appearances with 23 while finishing second in wins (7), innings pitched (61.1) and strikeouts (65).
- He earned third team All-American honors from D1Baseball following the season, the second year in a row an Irish pitcher earned All-American honors
- Slugger Niko Kavadas was selected by the Boston Red Sox in the 11th round with the 316th overall pick.
- Kavadas set the program record for most home runs in a single season with 22 in 2021.
- Kavadas finished the year with a .767 slugging percentage, which ranks second all-time in program history for a single season. Niko is also tied for second all-time for home runs in a career with 46.
- After the season, Kavadas was named a First Team All-American by D1Baseball, Baseball America and Perfect Game.
- He was the first Irish player to earn multiple first team honors in the same season since Steve Stanley in 2002.
