IRISH IN THE ACC

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of those seven institutions from the Southern Conference occurred during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name officially became the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at the Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation. The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on Sept. 18, 2011, when Pittsburgh and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013, after announcing on Sept. 12, 2012 its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15. The Fighting Irish will play five football games with ACC schools each year. On July 1, 2014, Louisville joined the ACC from the BIG EAST Conference and Maryland left the conference.

Notre Dame at the Championship

In their first ACC Conference Championship meet, Notre Dame broke or re-set 15 school records and earned three gold medals on the backs of Frank Dyer (200 free) and Zachary Stephens (100 and 200 breast). Stephens also came in second in the 200 IM, upping his first team All-ACC accolades to three.

The team placed sixth with 907.5 points in their first outing in the new conference, after dominating the BIG EAST in seasons prior and setting the league championship record with 991 points in 2013.

At the 2015 Conference Championship meet, held on Georgia Tech's campus, the Irish finished fifth with 675 points. They broke three school records in the 800 free relay, the 200 back and 1,650 free. The 800 free relay team of Trent Jackson, Benjamin Jany, Reed Fujan and Tom Anderson automatically qualified for the NCAA Championship with their 6:21.51 time, while the 200 medley relay lineup of Bogac Ayhan, Cameron Miller, Justin Plaschka and Stephens earned an invitation with their 1:26.35 performance.

2014 ACC Championship Wins

- 200 Breaststroke: Zachary Stephens (1:55.53)
- 100 Breaststroke: Zachary Stephens (52.59)
- 200 Freestyle: Frank Dyer (1:33.79)

BIG EAST RETROSPECTIVE

Notre Dame at the BIG EAST Championship

After competing for 25 years as an independent, Notre Dame joined the Midwestern Collegiate Conference in 1983-84, beginning a 12-year membership in which the Irish would win six league championships (1986 and 1988-92) and finish as the MCC runner-up four times (1984-85 and 1993-94). Notre Dame joined the BIG EAST Conference prior to the 1995-96 season and was a member through the 2012-13 season.

The Irish registered 15 consecutive top-four finishes in the BIG EAST Championships, including six victories (2005, 2006, 2008, 2009, 2012, 2013) and six runner-up results.

In its final year in the conference in 2013, Notre Dame finished with 991 points, 139.5 points above second place finisher Louisville (851.5). The total team score vastly exceeded the previous meet high of 917 points, set by Louisville in 2011. Notre Dame completed the meet with a staggering 16 athletes garnering 43 All-BIG EAST honors in 17 different events.

Notre Dame won 46 event titles at the BIG EAST meet, with five of those occurring at the 2005 championships and four more in 2006. Tim Kegelman became the first Irish swimmer to win three BIG EAST titles. Kegelman collected all three titles at the 2005 meet by winning the 100 fly, 200 IM and was part of the champion 400 Medley Relay. Ray Fitzpatrick (who was first in the 200 free in 2000 after anchoring the champion 400 free relay in 1999) was the first Irish student-athlete to win multiple BIG EAST championships. In 2006, Jay Vanden Berg became the second competitor in program history to capture multiple titles in the same meet as he won both the 500 and 1,650 free events, adding the 1,650 free title in 2005. John Lytle joined the elite company by earning three first-place finishes at the 2009 meet (800 free relay, 400 free relay, 200 free). Two-time All-American Frank Dyer earned three gold medals (50 free, 500 free and 200 medley relay) in 2013 to tie a program record with five for his career.

The top three event finishers gained all-BIG EAST honors, and over 50 Notre Dame competitors have achieved that status. Lytle led the Irish with 22 all-conference honors.

A total of 23 Notre Dame student-athletes have made a total of 17 all-time appearances at the NCAA Men's Swimming and Diving Championships. In 2014, seven swimmers and one diver - freshman Joe Coumos - competed in the national meet. In 2013, a record nine Irish swimmers, including Chris Johnson, John McGinley, Zachary Stephens, John Williamson, Kevin Hughes, Cameron Miller and Bogac Ayhan, along with previous qualifiers Frank Dyer and Bill Bass, were a part of the NCAA field. The 2013 Notre Dame NCAA participants joined Tim Kegelman (2005) and divers Michael Bulfin (2006, 2008) and Bob Ebel (1975) as Irish representatives at the national meet.

Dyer, a native of Loudonville, N.Y., is the only four-time NCAA Championship qualifier in Notre Dame history. Dyer became the first freshman to appear at the national meet in 2011, logging a top finish of 26th place in the 200 freestyle. He touched the wall in 1:34.00 for fourth place in the event the following of the year, earning the first All-America honor in school history. Dyer, along with Bass, Hughes and McGinley, claimed honorable mention All-America citations in 2013 after posting a 6:25.32 in the 800 freestyle relay.

Bulfin, from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., became the first member of the Irish program to earn multiple trips to the NCAA Championships when he made his second trip in 2008. He added another feather to his cap by becoming the program's first honorable mention All-American. He notched a pair of points in the final round of the 3-meter competition to secure a top-20 finish at the 2008 NCAAs. Bulfin finished 28th in the 1-meter with a count of 264.25 during the preliminary rounds. He followed that with a stellar 3:19.55 and a 16th-place finish in the 3-meter event during the prelims to move into the final heat. It was there that he moved up one spot to 15th with a score of 332.40 in the final round of the 3-meter to earn the first points for Notre Dame at the NCAAs in program history.

Ebel, a native of St. Louis, Mo., qualified in 3-meter diving event as a sophomore in 1975. He qualified with a record-breaking performance in a dual meet against Illinois State on Feb. 22 in the Rockne Memorial Pool. Ebel's score of 302.65 stood as the school record for nearly 15 years.

Kegelman competed at the 2005 NCAA Championships after earning his berth with a season-best time of 47.66 in the 100 Fly. He also swam in the 200 Individual Medley and the 100 Fly at the national meet.

Notre Dame swimmers have taken part in other major national and international meets over the years. MacKenzie LeBlanc took the gold in the 200-meter butterfly at the Tri Nations Cup meet in Quebec City. The Vernon, B.C., native topped the podium after checking in with a time of 2:00.13. LeBlanc won one of Canada's six gold medals to open the two-day meet which featured the top prospects expected to challenge for spots on the 2012 Olympic teams for Canada, France and Great Britain. Hosted in Quebec City, this inaugural competition showcased Canada's 2012 Olympic potential hopefuls.

Andrew MacKay was the first Irish swimmer to take part in the Olympics, hitting the water in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece. MacKay, the first native of the Cayman Islands ever to qualify for the Olympics in swimming, took part in both the 200- and 400-meter individual medleys and broke his own national records in both events. In the 400-meter event, it took him just 0.59 seconds to get off the starting blocks at the commencement of the race, and that reaction time was the fastest of any non-backstroker (male or female) during the entire Athens Olympics. He moved up from his seeding in both races to finish 33rd in the 400 IM and 41st in the 200-meter version.

While MacKay is Notre Dame's first men's swimming Olympian, various other Irish student-athletes have taken part in high-profile national and international meets. Dan Szilier, a 2000 graduate, was the most accomplished of that group, as he finished ninth in the 200-meter breaststroke in the 1999 World University Games in Palma de Mallorca, Spain. Szilier qualified for that team by taking seventh at the 1998 USA Swimming Summer National Championships. In 1997, Szilier was tabbed Rookie of the Meet at the USA Swimming Spring National Championships, ending up third in the 200 breast and eighth in the 100 breast.

The 2000 U.S. Olympic Trials featured three Notre Dame swimmers: Szilier, Jonathan Pierce (1,500 free), and Ryan Verlin (200 fly). Szilier led the Irish contingent by finishing 29th in the 200 breast.

Byron V. Kanaley Award

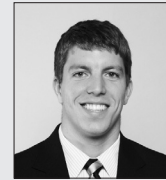

The most prestigious honor awarded to a Notre Dame student-athlete, the Byron V. Kanaley Award has been presented each year since 1927 to the senior monogram athletes who have been most exemplary as both students and leaders.

The awards, presented by the Faculty Board on Athletics, are named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the Irish baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960.

Eight members of the Notre Dame men's swimming and diving team have received the award, including five since 2000.
